“ Joe and I were so sorry to learn of our friend and neighbor's passing. We are praying for all the family. Growing up in Tompkinsville, we knew so many of the Conkins, and their children. Joe's sister, Brenda, and Barbara Jean were especially close. Joe and Charles Thompson, were hunting and fishing buddies. Many memories surface of good times. May all of you remember what a good man he was, and how hard he worked to make a good life for all.
