

Glen K. Stotts Sr.

June 29, 1947 - August 28, 2022

Glen Kilbourne Stotts Sr. age 75 passed away Sunday August 28, 2022 after a long battle with cancer. He was born on June 29, 1947.

Glen Sr.'s death was preceded by his mother, Morris Stotts and son Glen Stotts Jr.

He is survived by his wife of 56 years, Clara Stotts, son Bryan Stotts and wife Nicole, grandchildren Megan Pietrasiewicz, Matthew Stotts, Caleb Stotts, Helen Stotts, Oliver Stotts, Levi Stotts, Molly Stotts, Micah Stotts, Valery Stotts, great grandchild Aiden Pietrasiewicz, Sister Cindy Jordan.

Glen grew up going to school in the city and spending summers on the farm. He graduated from Ahrens Trade School in Louisville Ky. He was gifted in his fabrication skills. All who worked with him became better from his willingness to teach and serve those around him. Over the years he worked for the Board of Education followed by American Standard and finished his career with General Electric. Everyone knew Glen for his hard work and quality of work because of how he served everyone around him. He loved to serve others even when it meant not doing for himself. He loved God and found security in knowing that he had a heavenly father that loved him. He was an amazing husband and father. He loved his wife in a way that everyone around knew, and Clara never had to question how much. He loved his children and grandchildren in a way that they always spoke proudly of him. He will be forever loved and missed.
