“Glenn was my best friend and even though we had grown apart, he always will be. I think about him often these past few days and it seems like a part of me is gone also. Even though I can not be there my thoughts and prayers are with you all. Good Bye Old Friend.

“ I live by Glenn's parents, him and his Dad (Carl) took care of my yard. I cannot believe this has happened and my heart breaks for the family, But Carl and Christine, you know I love you all and will do anything we can for you all. My heart truly is broken for your lost. No we are not suppose to bury our kids. Please let me know if you need anything. Love Cindy, Terry, & Matthew
