“Carla, I am so happy for the wonderful years that you and Glenn had together, I know you will treasure them forever. Glenn's strength was beyond what we all could ever imagine, I know that God's plan was for him to touch our lives, and he did. We should all follow Glenn's example and live every day to the fullest. I hope you know I am a phone call away and will always be there for you, Madeline and Gavin. You are in my prayers. Kelly

“ Carla..I cannot even begin to imagine the loss and pain you are feeling right now. The only consolation you may have is that "finally" he can rest and be out of pain. No one deserves what you are going through and if there were anything I could do to ease your pain I would, but we both know that is not possible. Glenn was a super guy and perhaps your soulmate and when one can say they have found that is someone they are saying so much. Some people go through life and never experience the love and companionship you and Glenn shared and for that you must be thankful. And of course his legacy lives on in Gavin, his beautiful son. Carla, please do not hesitate to ever ask for anything at all and if I am capable of giving or doing I will. My thoughts and prayer are with you and the kids. God Bless and each day will get a little easier. Much Love, Tracy and Dean Arnold
