

Harlan Griggs "Greg" Land, Jr.

January 23, 2009

LAND, HARLAN GRIGGS "GREG" JR., 55, of Louisville, passed away Friday, January 23, 2009. He was an independent contractor in the field of information technology, had managed the Guitar Emporium and was a local musician. He is survived by his son, Jamison Griggs Land; his sisters, Kitty Massey and Dian Craven; his nieces; nephews; great-nieces; and great-nephews. His service will be 4 p.m. Saturday at Owen Funeral Home, 5317 Dixie Highway, with cremation to follow. Visitation will be 11 a.m. until time of service Saturday.

Tribute Wall

ST

“ I wish to extend my heartfelt sympathy to Greg's family and friends. To his son, Jamie and his sisters, Kitty and Dian. And to the many, many friends that he treasured and valued dearly.

And to Greg,...

Thank you for touching my life, though briefly, with your kindest, most compassionate, loving and endearing spirit. I will hold these cherished memories in my heart forever.

Sue Thompson - June 28, 2018 at 04:23 PM