“ As a little girl ( neighbor), he and my brother started their music and band in our basement. Wayne was always so kind. Seneca Park will never be the same.

“ Uncle Wayne,
I miss you man.
I regret the years we were not in contact but had enjoyed reconnecting with you in recent years. When my mom, your sister, passed...then Aunt Doris...well I hate loosing the old guard.
I remember in my youth your Schipperke Pooh Bear & swimming in the condo pool. As a teen I remember you helping me learn to drive in your brown pickup & hanging out at the Patio Lounge.
I remember the pachinko machine in your basement & your bass quietly sitting upstairs.
Just yesterday (July 25th 2022) dad sent me a text informing me Gant passed recently.
I've been trying to call since Aunt Linda passed, but never got you. It had been a while g i tried to call tonight & i began to fear the worst..so I looked & found you here 😞
Sandnes & I were planning to come up & see you one more time, bit her schedule, her 2 sons' goings on...well sorry it didn't work out.
Little bit of Rock n' Roll you had in your soul...i was just at a concert of one of my favorite bands a few days ago.
I'd discovered your old band the Heavyweights music a few years ago & play it for many of my friends.
I'll send word to Sandnes & dad.

I love you always Uncle Wayne, you won't be forgotten!
Gods speed your journey.
I'll see you when we all come home.
