

Harold Page

June 23, 2011

Page, Harold Ray, 75, of Louisville, Ky, passed away on Thursday, June 23, 2011 at his residence with family members by his side. He was the retired owner of Page Display, a Kentucky Colonel and a member of the St. Edward Senior Dine-Out, the designer of the awarding winning Fillies Floats for the Kentucky Derby Parades. He was preceded in death by first wife, Dolores Page; mother, Ada Boyd; step father, David Boyd; and granddaughter, Kelly Page. He is survived by wife, Marilyn Davidson Page; children, Harold Jr (Karyn)., Marty (Rachel), Keith (Celisse), Patty Nilest (Ray), and David Page; step sons, James Jr. and Thomas (Debbie) McGill; siblings, Mary Lou Cecil (Joe) and David Boyd Jr (Lori).; along with 10 grandchildren , one great grandchild; three step-grandchildren; six step-great- grandchildren, two nephews, and sister-in-law, Patricia Kaiser (Jim). Services to celebrate the life of Harold Page will be held 10 am Monday June 27, 2011 at St. Edward Catholic Church 9608 Sue Helen Dr. Burial will be in St. Edward Cemetery. Visitation will be Sunday from 2-8 pm at Owen Funeral home-Jeffersontown 9318 Taylorsville Rd. Donations in Harold's memory may be made to the American Cancer Society at www.cancer.org. On Line Condolences at www.OwenFuneralHome.com