

Helen Fay (Morris) Hartlage

June 21, 1935 - November 27, 2022

Helen Fay (Morris) Hartlage, was born in Owensboro on June 21, 1935 to parents Henry Ellis and Annie Lee (Hope) Morris. She spent lots of time on the farm with Mama and Papa Morris where she learned the value of hard work. She traveled out west to Nebraska as a young girl but eventually returned to Kentucky. She was a babysitter for several families in Owensboro where she also sang in the church choir and she loved to dance. She usually spoke her mind, even if you didn't necessarily want to hear it. She was a loving wife, mother, and grandmother. Helen passed away on November 27, 2022 in Louisville. She is survived by her sisters, children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to St. Jude Children's Research Foundation
