“ Aunt Helen, What a ride!! RIP as you so deserve. Growing up in the Jacob family was such a privilege with you as the oldest sibling of Emma Lee Jacobs. I know growing up we never had a ton of wealth but you and the Jacobs 6 (Helen, Gladys, Carol, Bob, Linda, and Pam) always made us feel like millionaires. Every weekend we loaded the station wagons full of food, towels, sunscreen, ect., heading to Deam Lake just in time for the car load special if you got there before 11 am. Or the times letting me spend the night to be able to dumpster dive in the Save-on garbage can for untold treasures. Or maybe swim at J'town swim club, or was it Bowling at J'town Lanes , or was it catching a $1 movie at J'town 4, maybe the Kenwood drive-in.

Then there was the family outings at Mike Linnings, or the yearly State Fair carloads of family almost daily. We usually got on the tv show with Melton Metz or Phyllis Knight? Clinging to our rope with hand loops we did not let go of.(10 cousins). and you all always gave us time to talk to Freddy Farm Bureau before the exhibits and the Midway.

I always looked forward to the Holidays for your sugar cookies or the making of the fried pies by all of the sisters. A feat of assembly line production that Henry Ford would have been proud of. Cherry, Apple, Blueberry by the dozens. oh yes!!

Thank you for the great times and memories I will cherish always!!
And just for you L's up

“ My name is Linda, my sister Helen was my role model as a nurse. There is no room here to describe our family; it's huge - and we were all very close. My second eldest sister, Gladys, and I were known as the 3 Musketeers. We played cards once a week for years.

Our family also baked together, especially when it came to summertime and fried pies. We had an assembly line going with each having a chore; making the dough, preparing the fillings, frying the filled dough, and sprinkling the powdered sugar. It was a blast.

And now, Gladys and I are minus our lead Musketeer.

I personally feel that Helen chose to leave us at this time as she was always present in the choir for Christmas mass and she wasn't about to miss the opportunity. She sang on Christmas. Love to all of my family members and hope our traditions carry on. I could not be there for her service but she will be with me always.

Helen also leaves behind many nieces, nephews, great-nieces as well as great-nephews. She was singing to us all for the midnight Mass and is now home with our Mom and many loved ones in Heaven.
