“ I worked with Helen for years at Portland and then The Cumberland. I always admired and respected her. She liked to make sure things were done correctly and she was such a good cook. One time I remember Earl Zion telling me when I was just a teller, never mind me Sheri he said "Helen runs the Bank". The most important thing I will always remember about Helen is that she loved her family. I am so sorry for your loss. God bless you and comfort you.
