“ I just saw this. I was in Boy Scouts with Homer and his brother. He was always one of the ones that took charge and kept things together. Though I havent seen him in many years , I still feel a great loss. RIP my friend

“ I worked with Homer for about 20 years. When you spend your work days together you see and experience it all. Good and bad ! He was a talented Machinist , and his math skills were insane. He used to help me figure out the most complicated material tickets. Paul and Alex , you were his universe , I am so sorry for your loss.

“ You want to find a guy that will bend over backwards for you, it was Homer. What started as a work relationship, quickly became a friendship. Rest easy my friend. You will definitely be missed.

“ If you was ever in a jam, Homer was your go to man. Over the years we become real good friends. Homer never met a stranger and loved to talk to anyone about his boys, family and ducks. Rest easy Brother, until we meet again.

Godspeed, Homer never seemed to have a bad day. Always on top of the world. A friend you always knew was there when you needed something , whether work or personal. Your worries are over know my friend go rest high in that duck blind on the other side my friend.
