“ I did not know Howard well. I only met him a few times - usually at meals - at Ponder Creek. At the time, my Father had Alzheimer's and was not the best dinner companion. But Howard was there every day to help him and my Mother. He was a good friend and companion to them both. His patience with Father was extraordinary. When I was able to be there with them, I enjoyed my conversations with Howard as well. My thanks to Howard for his thoughtfulness and my sympathies to the family for his loss.
