“ Dear Mattingly Family,
My family is blessed to have known your father. It seems like just a few years ago when Doris and him celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary which myself and my father Tom Marshall attended. His garden was absolutely the best and I enjoyed seeing it develop year after year as I drove by and always honked my horn. I aspired to have that same talent. I will always think of him when my black raspberries come in to bloom as he was kind to share roots when my family first moved out in Fisherville.(everyone raves out them when I make cobbler.) God rest his Soul. To live on in the hearts of others is not to die.
Your family is in our prayers.
Love,
Marshall, Campbell and Lindsey families.
