“ I will never forget the bond we shared. I loved all of our “grand-dates” where just the two of us explored the zoo, the aquarium, the museum, and many, many more fun trips. Loved taking you to the beach and watching you frolic in the waves. Loved watching you play video games with such finesse. Loved our long conversations about anything and everything. Loved your care and concern for your family, and your dog Koby. Loved everything about you, Jackson. You have taken a huge piece of my heart with you. My sweet memories of you will have to sustain me until we meet again. I am so relieved you will never feel pain or sorrow again, for you are with God now — Love, Mamma Nicki.
