“ My heart goes out to all that she loved, especially the love she had for David. She was so proud of Carol Ann. I will cherish the morning conversation we had every single day. We would talk about our kids, family and laugh so hard. It breaks my heart that i can't be with the family during this sad time. She was my little sister, but i thought of her as my big sister. I will never forget what we did as children ,so many memories .Till we meet again Sis, Be there when i come, i won't be afraid.

“ I met Jackie when she was twelve years of age; we lived in the same neighborhood and spent our childhood making great memories together. She always tried to be happy despite great heartaches in life. That laugh of hers brought joy to all that heard it.

She has left earthly life, but we will see her again because she will be right there in Heaven to greet us. I love you Jackie!
