

James David Boaz Sr.

August 6, 2013

Boaz, James David Sr., 67, went home to his Lord, Tuesday August 6, 2013 at Jewish Hospital Downtown. He was born in Sonora, KY to James Alonzo & Pauline (Cave) Boaz. James was retired from the Maintenance Dept at the University of Louisville, with 14 years service. He was a Baptist by faith and a U.S. Air Force Vietnam Veteran, He was preceded in death by his Parents and a Son: James David Boaz Jr. Survivors include his partner in life: Brenda Brown; 2 Daughters: Michelle Beard and Cindy Booth (James); a Step-Daughter: Michelle Burton; 9 Grandchildren and 4 Great Grandchildren; a Sister: Norma Lou Hatfield; a half-Sister: Pattie Lawson; Step Brother: Jackie McClure and his former wife: Shirley Boaz. Funeral Services will be held 11:00 AM Monday at Owen Funeral Home, 5317 Dixie Hwy., with burial to follow in Kentucky Veterans Cemetery Central, with military honors. Visitation will be Sunday 1 – 8 PM

Tribute Wall

MG

“ I knew Jumper when we were children, attending elementary school and church together. I lost contact with him and his family over the years, but seeing his obituary brought back a lot of memories. My sincere condolences to the family.

Madeline Grieb - June 28, 2018 at 03:52 PM

BH

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Jumper and I have been friends a long time. We had not seen each other for a good while but still good friends. He is in Gods hands now. Condolences to the family.

Bobby Hurley - June 28, 2018 at 03:52 PM