“ Hello, Brother. We would talk just about every day on the phone, for years, and we always began with "hello, brother". We would see each other thru the years, you even visited us when we lived in Jacksonville, FL. Back when I was able we enjoyed playing golf and you always wanted to beat me. Sometimes you did but not often. When I needed to buy a used car, just a few months ago, you helped me choose one and it's a good car. I valued your opinion. I am going to miss you every day. Every day. And as we always ended our conversations, we would say "Love you, Brother". And so I say to you now, I love you, Brother.
