“ Seeing your father immediately reminded me of the visits he and your mother made to my parents....many years ago. They were such lovely people.

May sweet memories bring you comfort. Sending love. Laura Siegrist Clifford

James always asked about our family. He was always concerned about others and asked if we knew Jesus. The last time I saw Uncle Jim, I helped him walk across the street from his house to see his wife at the senior care facility. He proudly stated that he walked over every day to see his wife. He mentioned that his goal was to be 100 years old. Jim, you made it and now you are in Jesus' loving arms. You are truly missed by all who knew you. Thank you for being a great example for all of us. The Idaho clan: The Milburns, Robert, Tanna and kids: Princess, Angela, Andrea, Little Princess, Robert III, Terry and all of our grandkids and great grandkids. Praying for the void his passing has left. We love you all.
