

James Michael Hope Jr.

August 18, 1967 - November 17, 2021

James Michael Hope, Jr., 54, of Louisville KY, passed away, November 17th, 2021.

He was born in Louisville KY, to his parents Patricia Clark (Joe) and James Hope, Sr., August 18th, 1967. After he graduated high school, he went on to start his own medical transport company, Hope 4 U Medical Transport LLC. He was an avid UK fan and greatly enjoyed watching both football and basketball. He was a loving father to all his children and enjoyed every chance he got to spend with each of them. James also enjoyed collecting Pokemon memorabilia and had quite the collection of trading cards. He cherished his loving wife Chantelle and did everything he could to care for and support his family. His memory will be held dear to the hearts of all he touched.

He was preceded by his father James Hope, Sr., his sister Shona, and his grandparents.

He is survived by his wife, Chantelle Castro – Hope; mother, Patricia Clark (Joe); children, Diana Hope, Devin Hope, Kolin Hope, Samuel Hope, Harmony Hope, Sahara Hope, and Joseph Hope; grandchildren, Brody, Remington, Amelia, and Jasper.
