“Dad, you are missed more and more every day. Not a day goes by I don't think of you. Chloe talks about the fun things you both used to do together and Clayton finally said "Grandpa" a week after the funeral. You are thought about and talked about every single day and you will be remembered always. I love you and miss you so so much.

“I am so sorry for your loss. He was my genealogy cousin and I loved researching with him.
