“ To Jim's family, I am so sorry for your loss. Jim was such a great guy. When I started attending Larchmont a number of years ago, Jim found out I was new to the Church of God. He purchased a number of books about the Church of God for me, and spent time expalining the Church of God history to me. He and Joyce attendied an installation service for me at one of my churches. I am so thankful for the impression that Jim left with me. When I heard the news of his death I wept. He will be missed greatly! I counted it a blessing to call him a friend. You are all in my prayers!

“ Ryan , Jan and family, I am so sorry for your loss. I didn't know your Dad, but I know that he was a wonderful person, because he raised a wonderful Son, who I had the privilege to work with for many years at Nestle. My thoughts and prayers go out to you during this difficult time.
