James Daniel (Danny) King, 66, left us way too soon on November 3, 2018. Danny was born on March 9, 1952, the second son of Maurice Eugene King and the late Lorene Catherine O'Bryan King. Raised in Louisville, KY, he graduated from Pleasure Ridge Park High School and was a U.S. Army Veteran. At the time of his death, he was a resident of Raleigh, NC, where he had lived for more than 30 years.

In addition to his mom, Danny is preceded in death by his sister, Loretta King Brown; his infant brother, Scott Gerard King; and his partner, Michael Hod Rieber. He is survived by his dad, Maurice King; his brothers Paul (Mary), Jeffrey, and Richard (Angel) King; his sisters Deborah Lancaster and Sharon (Bruce) Ballard; and numerous nieces and nephews. Danny was a kind and gentle man and we will cherish our memories of him.

“ Danny loved making people laugh! In his younger days, he was so athletic, playing basketball with his best friend, Vance Overstreet, and other friends. He was kind, loving, gentle, patient, compassionate. He was my older brother and I miss him deeply.
