“ Dorothy and family, I am so sorry to hear that Jim lost his battle with cancer. I have certainly missed seeing him on my recent visits to mom's house. I want to thank you and Jim for being such good neighbors to my family for many years. I have so many memories of Jim and countless conversations with him. I have requested for your family at our church and it comforts me knowing that Jim is in a better place now. I'm thankful for the witness and testimony of your family in church over the years. Our prayer is the God will provide comfort for you and your family.
