October 30, 1937 - January 17, 2024

James Leonard Mattingly passed away on January 17, 2024 at 86 years old in Evansville, IN. He was born on October 30, 1937 in Hardinsburg, KY.

Hardinsburg was a frequent topic of Leonard's, as he was known to many. He loved talking about his childhood with his dear parents and siblings. Those years left an indelible mark. His love for Our Lord, devotion to family, and his love for the outdoors were formed there.

Leonard considered his greatest accomplishment to be his marriage to his wife of 63 years, Martha. He constantly said she was the best woman in the world and their great love was known to many. Leonard and Martha moved to Louisville, and it was there that they raised their family and built their business, L&M Tile Company.

Leonard will be remembered as a beloved husband, father, grandfather, and great grandfather. He will lovingly be remembered by his wife Martha; his children: James Mattingly; Ron Mattingly and his wife Diane; Lisa Gribbins and husband Mark; Donna Bruderle and husband Scott; Larry Mattingly and wife Diane; Greg Mattingly and wife Kerry; brother Allen Mattingly and wife Sylvia; and his sister Linda Mattingly. Leonard also leaves behind his beloved grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Leonard was known for his love of fishing, sports, and his faith. In the last years of his life, in which his conversation was limited, he was known to say

“Amen” every minute and hour of every day.

The family would like to express gratitude for the many who helped in Leonard’s care. Michael Anderson was Leonard’s longtime caregiver. His care and devotion exhibited great love. He became known as St. Michael to Leonard’s family. The family would also like to extend special thanks to Dr. David Schultz and Asericare Hospice nurse Ashley Smith for their end of life care and spiritual direction.
