Donnie was a great guy. Dirk and I remember him from Western and we were in band together. We always enjoyed talking to him whenever we would run into him. The video was awesome. Our prayers are with the family. Pam Trowbridge Turner and Dirk Turner

“ On 9-14-2013 at 5:46:07 p.m., Rick Thurston stopped a "bush holdup" as Donald "Donnie" Yates was escorting Kayla Marie, his daughter, toward her and Andrew Biddle's Wedding Ceremony site at Big Springs Country Club in Louisville, KY. That incident put a big smile on Donnie's face; as well as, Karen and my faces that day! As grandparents then and now, of Andrew and Kayla Yates Biddle, we were happy that wedding day! However, now we are truly saddened by the passing of James Donald Yates. Our prayers are extended to all of his family!!!

“ Donnie was a wonderful, caring man. My husband Mike met him through work and they became very good friends. Donnie and Debbie was always there for me when Mike passed. I will miss him but know that is having a ball with Mike in heaven. I pray for peace for his family.

“ Donnie was literally my soul brother, my forever best friend, my twin. Twins, as you know, love to love, and love to hate one another. We were closer and yet further apart than our other siblings. It is a dichotomy that I believe all twins share. Be that as it may, we remained, until his death, loyal and faithful brothers who would do anything for one another and for our family. And though his death is a train wreck for me, emotionally, I know he would not want us to dwell on our grief. Donnie loved life, and would want us to continue loving life as well. I will do that, Donnie, as long as I am able. Farewell my beloved, brother. Play a song for the angels, and be sure to make them laugh.
