“ *Dear Jamesetta and Dwight,
So sorry to hear about your dad's passing. I got busy and didn't read the paper until the night of his service. I wished I had been there. He was a good, kind man. All he did was go to work, work at home and go to church. He couldn't have had an enemy in the world. If there were more men like him the world would be a better place. Surely God called home one of his best guys.
Sincerely, John and Nina Layer*
