

Janet Montgomery Densmore

January 16, 1941 - November 26, 2022

Janet Montgomery Densmore sadly passed on November 26, 2022 after a long and happy life.

The world became brighter on January 16, 1941, the day that Janet was born.

She grew up in

Maryland and is survived by her siblings Harold Montgomery, Dennis

Montgomery, and Patti

Montgomery (Robert) Tite. Janet was predeceased by her dear parents,

Harold and Gladys

Montgomery.

In 1962, a handsome young man dragged raced into Janet's life and drove off with her heart.

On December 8, 1962, Janet married the love of her life, Robert (Bob) William Densmore, Sr.

They lived a life full of love and adventure, and they were rarely apart. Bob

was by Janet's side

when she passed.

Janet is survived by her son, Rob Densmore and his wife, Lisa Bellafato of

Louisville, KY, by her daughter Ronda Dorsey and her husband, David, and her granddaughter,

Anna Madison Dorsey

of Sonoita, AZ.

Janet was a brilliant CPA with a long and successful career. In her younger days, she was an accomplished pianist, and had a flare for adventure, working towards getting her pilot's license.

Janet and Bob had wanderlust and spent free time traveling around the country, especially enjoying time out West where they lived for many years. For relaxation and fun, Janet would go to casinos—she loved her penny slots!

Family meant everything to Janet, and how she will be remembered most is as a loving and selfless wife, a beloved mother who always had the ability to make things OK, a wonderful and caring grandmom who adored her granddaughter, and a fun-loving sister. Janet's smile and laughter brightened the day and had a way of making you feel good. Janet always saw the best in people and the world around her, and no matter what life dealt her, Janet focused on the positive. When asked how she was doing, Janet answered with a resounding and genuine "I'm wonderful!" Janet loved to laugh, and she would love nothing more than for her family and friends to enjoy a few laughs as we share memories and stories that celebrate what was good and blessed in her life.
