“ Janet would come out of her room and peek around the corner to see who was there when I would visit with Betty. It was so sweet. I remember that Janet loved Harbor House, playing bingo on Friday night, bowling, playing soft ball and her family.

“ One time when Betty, her mom, was having bunco Janet decided she wanted to go home with me. She had her pj's on already and was serious about leaving with me. She always wanted to help. Such a sweetheart
