

Janetta Fay (Lee) Embry

March 7, 1940 - March 15, 2025

Janetta Fay Lee Embry passed away after a long, difficult illness on March 15, 2025. She was born to Choncie and Bessie Lee on the 7th of March 1940 in Butler County, Ky. She is preceded in death by her parents; infant daughter, Rita Fay Embry; two brothers, Elmer and Alvie Lee; two sisters, Geneva Anderson and Sue Wiggins; and her beloved friend and companion, Layton Bryant.

Left to cherish her memory are her daughters, Kathy Denzik (Doug) and Gail Goins (Tony); her son, David Embry (daughter, Amber Barnes and grandson, Elijah Coomer); her grandchildren, Nathan Duke (Natalie), David Denzik (Amanda), Tara Conner (Sammy) and Alex Duke (Melanie); seven great grandchildren; Teagan Duke, Wyatt Conner, Lucas and Matthew Denzik, Elliot, John and Zoe Duke; and brother, Roy Lee.

Janetta led a simple life and loved her home. She enjoyed gardening, sewing, homemaking and reading. In her view, there was nothing better than a sunny day and being outdoors whether it be for chores or pleasure. She routinely started her days by reading her Bible. She was a faithful Christian and a member of Expressway Church of Christ. Most recently, she was especially fascinated with the great grandchildren as they came along. In her final months, she treasured quiet time, reflection and prayer.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to Janetta's dear friend and neighbor, Janice Hardy (Mike) who saw her needs while she lived alone and attended to her before even being asked. The love and prayers of her Expressway Church family sustained her in the final weeks and months. She was very blessed to have them.

If you are so inclined to make a charitable contribution in Janetta's memory, please consider the Special Olympics of Kentucky/ Louisville Wizards Teams. Janetta's visitation will be at Owen Funeral Home on Wednesday, March 19, 2025, from 4:00-8:00PM. The funeral service will be on Thursday at 11:00AM with burial to follow at Layman Cemetery, 8200 Beaver Dam Rd., Millwood, KY, 42721.

“ Janetta was a sweetheart. She cared for my grandparents during some of their last months. She was so sweet to them even though she had to win Lula over in the beginning but once she painted her finger nails she loved her and would miss her on days she wasn't there. Then years later my son married her granddaughter and she loved him, too! Kathy and Doug, I know you will miss her but know she is pain free and has found some peace. Hopefully you will find some peace in knowing that, too! Love to all of you.
