“ My heart goes out to Jason’s children first, who have lost their father. Just remember to believe you will see him one day if you believe and stay strong in your faith in Jesus. He’s only gone for a while. Then to his parents: I can’t imagine the pain of losing a child, no matter how old they are. My thoughts and prayers are with you! To his siblings; care for your parents, each other and especially your brother’s children! They will need you to guide them throughout their lives. Only remember the good times and let everything else go. God bless you all and the rest of his friends and family!
