“ I couldn't start to identify a single memory for there are so many and all are precious. I am reminded of The biblical story of Lydia who died and was praised for the many great things she did for others...they brought the things she had made to show all... I doubt a single building could hold all the amazing things Aunt Jenny made us all!! She truly loved her family and giving special gifts craft d by her talented hand
Thank you for being an Aunt to my family and so completely loving us all!!
