

Jean Littlefield

November 15, 1945 - April 24, 2024

Jean Littlefield, 79 passed away April 24th, 2024. Survived by her husband Wendell Littlefield, son Kirk Littlefield, nephew Chris Phillips, and grandkids Jason, Bethany, Jon, Josh, Gary, Jeremiah, Mark, Christian, Cecile, John, and Adam. Preceded in death by her son Robert Wilson, and daughter Lisa Simon. She spent her years spreading joy and her New York sass to any and all around her. She was loved by many of her students during her time teaching science at Myers Middle School, even after she retired in 93. She enjoyed traveling the country with her husband, gardening, and taking care of her beloved home. She never forgot a birthday and loved spending time with her many great grandkids. Visitation will be Sunday April 28th at Owen Funeral Home on Taylorsville Road from 2-5pm with service to follow.

“ Jean was a resident at Masonic Homes and I will never forget meeting her. She was the sweetest, kindest and funniest lady. She loved telling me stories about her teaching days and memories at Meyers. Rest In Paradise, Jean. I love you and I will miss you dearly!!

“ Jeannie was one of my mother's friends back in Brooklyn. My mom, Suanne (Lorraine), Jeannie, and Patty Micalf were best friends. I imagine them as the 3 musketeers of Bay Ridge! Suanne passed January 2024 and I know her & Jeannie are in heaven catching up. Patty resides in PA and mourns the loss of friends. God Bless all 3 of you.

“ Mrs. Littlefield was a great teacher and was always happy and smiling. I haven't seen her in many years but I hope she knows how many lives she changed/impacted.

“ Jean was a colleague at Myers Middle School for many years, and I always respected her as a teacher and a fine human being. She impacted many young lives in her classroom and also those of us who had the pleasure of knowing her as a fellow teacher.
