“ *The way was dark through the valleys.
The hills loomed too high to climb.
Yet the light at the end of the chasm
beckons the weary one on.*

*At last the trail on this earth, Jean reached the cleft deep in the rock.
With one last footstep in shadow, a hand reached through from the light.
Jean grasped it tightly, but gently,
and then slipped from our sight.*

*Arm in arm they ascended together,
the steps to the other side.
To the crowd of familiar faces,
to welcoming kisses and hugs,
to meadows of flowers and birdsong,
resplendent in heavenly dawn.*

*We pray you find the strength
to celebrate the successes of your Mom's life.
Life as we know it has ended, but Jean's life has just begun in heaven.*
