

Jeanie Marie Fulkerson

October 30, 1942 - February 21, 2025

Jeanie Marie Fulkerson, 83 passed away on February 21, 2025.

Jeanie was born on October 30, 1942 in San Bernardino, Ca to the late John Q. Adams and Opal Adams of Merry Oaks, Ky.

She was a retired history teacher for JCPS at Western High School. Jeanie was a giver and took care of everyone around her. Jeanie loved all animals and loved to give advice. Her most favorite quote of late was “do not obey in advance”.

She was preceded in death by her loving husbands Edwin Hogan and Monty R. Fulkerson, her sister Sarah Irish and grandson Michael Bent

She is survived by her children Chris Hogan (Lisa), Brent Fulkerson (Esther), Renee Wimsatt (Tommy) grandchildren Matthew Hogan (Kelsy), Jessica Whited (Patrick), Sydney Fulkerson, Claire Fulkerson, Alexandra Sandelin and Cheyenne Blair (Nick). Great grandchildren, Wyatt and Lily Whited, Aiden, Micah, Maya and Nora Hogan.

Any memorable gifts can be donated to Alley Cats of Louisville.

Cemetery Details

Cremation was chosen

Tribute Wall

BW

“ First she was my history teacher then my aunt. Very gifted at both.

Billy Wilcox - February 25, 2025 at 10:25 AM

CW

“ Prayers for her family. Jeanie was so wonderful with our Mother and Dad. Love to all of you.

Cheryl Wagner - February 24, 2025 at 03:12 PM