

Jeffrey M. "Jeff" Brandt

September 30, 1977 - April 25, 2026

Jeffrey M. "Jeff" Brandt, 48, of Louisville, passed away Saturday, April 25, 2026.

He was preceded in death by his father, Terry Brandt.

He is survived by his loving wife, Melissa Cartee Brandt; children, Christian Olds, Draven Cartee, and Halo Read; mother, Roberta (Simmons) Brandt; and many extended family members and friends.

Jeff had a love for the darker side of things; cybergoth music, horror movies, and tattoos, but nothing ever came close to his lifelong devotion to Depeche Mode. That kind of devotion showed up in the rest of his life too as he ended up marrying his very first love from middle school, who he always called *his light*, something that always felt a little rare and special.

At home, he was completely adored by his five dogs, Dargo, Dandy, Dior, Dahlia, and Divine. They were never far from his side. Those who knew Jeff well got the privilege of knowing his subtle sense of humor. Above all, he possessed an incredible, rare laugh—a hidden treasure reserved only for those lucky enough to truly know him.

His funeral service will be at 11 a.m. Monday, May 4, 2026 at Owen Funeral Home-Jeffersontown, 9318 Taylorsville Rd. with burial to follow in Floydsburg Cemetery. Visitation will be from 12-7 p.m. Sunday at Owen Funeral Home-Jeffersontown.

In honor of Jeff's memory, the family asks everyone to wear their favorite band t-shirt for the visitation.

“ Jeffrey, thank you for all the stomach butterflies, the amazing music, the late nite silliness, and your one gorgeous raised eyebrow. I hope you are now at peace. Love always, your wife!

Melissa Cartee Brandt - April 29 at 01:46 AM darling, don't let the horrors of the last few weeks erase the good times you had together. no one can take that away from you. I wish you peace and that God holds you in the palm of His hands. no one can tell you how to grieve but all of us who love you want you to go on being the wonderful mother and friend you have always been. so many prayers.
