“ *It's with great sadness that I learned about the passing of Jerry on July 5, 2021. I served with Jerry in Vietnam in an artillery Battery of 155mm Guns and 8 Inch Howitzers Self Propelled. Jerry came into an existing Gun section and was welcomed by all. He was a big help and went on Patrols, stood parameter guard, volunteered for extra duty, and was wounded by shrapnel, but didn't get a Purple Heart. He and I have texted, talked, and shared emails over the past 18 months. He was a good Marine. Rest In Peace my friend.

“ Jerry was a valued friend who I spent many hours golfing with and a few memorable fishing outings also. He fought a courageous battle with his disease and can rest now.
