“ Jo was an amazing lady! I loved sitting with her talking. She was so wise and witty!! She always made me laugh. I'd run and get her KFC bc she loved it! It was my privilege to have her part of our family. My dad knew what he was doing when he chose her!! I loved her immediately! I will miss her very much.

Much love to her family,
Tammy Rhodes

“ This lady will be sadly missed....I loved her dearly& she was one of the best AUNT'S TO MY 2 GIRLS& 3 grandgirls...No matter when I got to see her...or got to talk on phone for long times....She willalways be remembered as the aunt Jessi Joe. That everybody waited to come home...or get to go visit with her....God be with her boys& her grandchildren..I know how much she loved them...Me & my girls * grandkids will always remember her& I will never forgot some of the things she taught me in our little get together....My prayers also to her special Niece Nancy Gayle..whom I know she loved dearly as she did her....We loved you Aunt Joe& you will be sadly missed..❤️🙏🙏🙏

“ Momma Joe ,that's what we always called her. She was so sweet. She wasn't Bryce's real grandma, but he always thought of her as his grandma because he was Savannah's bestie and that was her grandma and momma Joe told him he could always call her grandma. So he did. We loved her like she was a grandma. She always treated Bryce as if he was her grand child. Never once forgetting his birthday or not giving him a card with money in it. She was the best. She loved him to pieces and he loved her also. She always got a big hug from him. Our hearts are broken 💔 We will always love you momma Joe and we will definitely miss you. Heaven gained a true angel. RIP Joe !! Love always Edie and Bryce !
