“ When I think of Joan, as I sit here reflecting on how great it has been getting to know my Kentucky family, all I can see is her laughing. She had a wonderful laugh and she loved life, her family, her friends and her grandchildren. We were lucky to be able to attend hers and Jim's sixtieth anniversary. Just think of that. Sixty years! In those sixty years she and Jim created so many great memories for their family and friends. In the end what else is there but memories and if they are good ones we are enriched beyond measure.

We will miss Joan but love the memories.

With love and sympathy,
