“ When I was a little girl, Joan was a big, memorable part of my childhood. She was one of the very best parts of my old neighborhood. You can't have child-friendly, safe neighborhoods without ladies like Her. I was over at Joan's house a lot because of the friendship I had with Patty. Patty & I were buddy's and played together quite a bit. Four square comes to mind. On one of my many visits to Joan's house to hang out with Patty, Joan taught Patty how to make bread pudding. It was deeee-licious! I remember that day like it was yesterday. We had so much fun. Joan always had a smile. She was always sweet & kind to me. She always made me feel welcomed.

Dearest Joan, there is a little less light on this planet without you here. I would be selfish if I still wished you were here because I know you are in a far better place. And without fail, whenever I have bread pudding, I think of you and Patty.

Love,
Evelyn
