“ My dear Aunt Jo, what a gaping hole your physical absence will be in all our lives, but as for me, I am trying to focus on that beautiful reunion you are now having in Heaven with all those you cherished most! I thank God for the impact you made in my life and in the lives of a multitude of people around you. There are so many critical life lessons you taught me. First and foremost, you taught me to love Jesus, but through the years, so much more. You were the first person to teach me about my responsibility to God and my family in Christ. You were the person that taught me to vote and the privilege it is to be American. You taught me faithfulness and dedication and how to teach children at church. You taught me, and I quote your words now, " "Stop paying lip service to everything that is wrong in this world and YOU be the change you want to see. YOU start the process for something better. YOU lead the way for the ones less enlightened and YOU never back down and YOU never give up!" You have been such an incredible gift from God in my life and I will always try to live up to the person you taught me I should be.

“ I was in her Sunday school class. She took extreme and cautious care about what she taught about God. Her thoughts were deep and focused on Christ. She had a servants heart. I will certainly miss her smile.
