“ Well my friend, sorry I didn't make it to the visitation or services. Wanted to say goodbye properly. But as you know the career we chose hinders our time occasionally. I know you and your dad would understand. Thanks for all you taught me, you were indeed a great friend and I learned a lot of life lessons from you as well. For that I thank you. Sad we didn't get to have a beer after we both battled cancer. I'll hoist one to the sky one evening. I'm glad we stayed in touch over the years, meant a lot to me. God speed and I'm sure you're slaying the ducks up there now. Peace be with your soul.

“ I share in your loss of a great guy. I played football with John, graduated from OCHS with him, and had fun together as teenagers. He will live on in my memories of him. Again-my sorrow in your loss.
