“ One of life's greatest treasures is getting the opportunity to talk to aunts, uncles, and grandparents as an adult. Visiting with my Uncle John as an adult gave me such insight into who he truly was. I remembered him as my funny uncle who loved children and played with them at family gatherings. Now, I also will remember him as an equally funny man, full of wonderful stories of his childhood and more. He was also a deeply spiritual man whose love for Christ and the people in this life showed in his conversations and actions. I wish there had been more opportunities to spend time talking and reminiscing, he will be greatly missed.
