“ Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal. ~From a headstone in Ireland

Missing someone gets easier every day because even though it's one day further from the last time you saw each other, it's one day closer to the next time you will.

“ Dear Jon Eric,

Johnny and I were sad to read about your Dad's death this morning in the Courier Journal. We know how much he meant to you and I am sure this is difficult. Hopefully the good memories will soon erase this pain. Blessings to you and your family

Sincerely,

Dolores and John Oakley

“ John Franconia was one of the kindest and most giving of men. He carried on a wonderful work ethic handed down from both his parents John and Marie Franconia that included kindness and concern for all his employees. He worked closely with his brother Jerry and sister Joan for years. He will be greatly missed by his family, community and church. He was surrounded by his family as he went to be with the Lord. I know he found great comfort in the end and was at peace. I am very proud that he had 2 very caring and competent caregivers at his side...his wife and daughter Gloria and Kim Franconia.
