“ Kevin will be sorely missed. I always enjoyed our discussions on the next best restaurant to try. He had a heart of gold and he was frequently in my thoughts these past few years. Prayers to his family and coworkers.

ME

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Kevin for many years. I originally met Kevin when he made Cardinal Health deliveries to my department, but over the years he became my friend. Kevin was encouraging. He was always friendly and pleasant. He always had a kind word and showed concern when he knew someone in my family was facing a challenge of some sort. I enjoyed my conversations with Kevin and looked forward to seeing him in my department. He touched more lives than he realized. Without a doubt, Kevin made a lasting impression on everyone he came in contact with and his kind smile and gentle nature will be missed.

“ Kev, you will be missed. Only knew Kev 15 yrs. at Cardinal Health, but loved him like a brother. I feel blessed to have had Kev as a part of my life. Kev had a big ol heart, if you met him, you liked him. He always called me Me-ster, the Me was for my initials Mike Embry. Good bye my dear friend
