“ John,
I miss you buddy. I know that you are at peace and are looking down on us. As you walk hand in hand with God, ask him to help all of us that you left behind. We are hurting and missing you alot. We all know that someday we will be able to be with you and enjoy you again. We just wish we had more time with you. But we understand the good Lord wanted to bring you home with him . It is hard for us to accept that but we know you are doing well now. Until we see you someday on the streets of heaven buddy, we will always love you and keep your memory alive. Bye.
