

John Wesley Lastinger

June 27, 1954 - December 14, 2020

John Wesley Lastinger was born on June 27, 1954 in Tampa, FL and died on December 14, 2020 in Louisville, KY.

John was the owner/operator of 2406 Laundrymart located on Frankfort Avenue. He has been a community leader in Crescent Hill for the last 14 1/2yrs. He was a fair and kind man. The door was always open and the coffee pot was always on. There have been countless people that came to seek advice from "Mr. John". He had a genuine concern for every person that walked through his door. He took great pride in knowing that his little laundromat changed people's lives for the greater good on 3 different continents. John's focus was always on others. There are 3 things that he would want to pass down to the following generations to come.

1) God - God is real. The bible is God's word. Start a personal relationship with God. You will never regret giving yourself to Jesus.

2)Family - Family is all you have in this world. There are 2 options a family can take. Option 1: Family can come together for the greater good of everyone. Option 2: Family can fall apart over hurt feelings and unimportant things. Always choose Option 1.

3) Country - America is the greatest country in the world and never demean it with your words or actions. Extend your voting rights, not just in national elections but in local elections too. Don't stand with your hand out, instead be a productive citizen.

John was never a fan of the spotlight being on him. To honor this aspect, there will not be a funeral or memorial service. Instead of a service for one day, he would rather have people come into the laundromat and have a cup of coffee. Starting January 2, 2021, John's daughter Amanda, invites you to come into the store to have a cup of coffee and share your memories of Mr. John.

John is survived by his wife Premkamon Lastinger, daughter Amanda Cottrell, 4 grandchildren Vivian, James, Alexander, Ava-Jain, 2 brothers William Reese and Edward Lastinger. Preceded in death are his mother Annie Lastinger, father Gordon Lastinger, and daughter Jessica Lastinger.

"John, may you find peace at the feet of Jesus and in Heaven, your new home."
