“ The day our daughter was born, was one of the best days of my life. You have no idea what you really meant to me. At the end of the day we were always there for each other. No one can ever replace you, or the relationship we had. I know you are in a much better place. I love you and I always will superman.

“ Rick, there are a million memories i could share. I cant wrap my head around this. I keep waiting for my phone to ring. I will miss you everyday until we meet again. We knew what we meant to each other and I am so thankful for that. You are such an amazing man. Rock star Dad. Fabulous friend. You have the biggest heart of anyone I've ever known. I know that you will always be with us. I love you Rick
