“ I went to his house one day in November, and we both had a long weekend. We decided to drive to Clearwater.

We saw “Visit Rock City.” So we did. We got there at around midnight and went to hit a couple of hot spots. It was November. Everyone was going home.

We had a great time. Probably one of the most spontaneous things either one of us had done up to that time. Worst sunburn I ever had.

Lots of bike rides and cruising. Great guy.

I remember Joe pulling up in front of our house in PRP in his convertible. Such a nice guy. Prayers for his family during this difficult time. Love, Karen Smallwood Sacksteder

We really treasured being next door neighbors to both Joe & Linda. We relished our “over the fence” conversations, and were always envious of Joe’s lush backyard landscapes. Joe was a very special guy, and had a very gentle spirit. We will miss him tremendously.
