

Joseph C. "Jay" Carrico, Jr.

June 2, 2017

Joseph C. "Jay" Carrico, Jr., 93, passed away peacefully Friday, June 2, 2017. He was a Navy veteran, who proudly served in WW II, retired from the Naval Ordnance Station after several years of service, and was a member of Incarnation Catholic Church. Jay was known for his sense of humor, quick wit and his love of animals. He was an avid coin collector and a skilled craftsman. He was preceded in death by his first wife, Margaret Carrico; his second wife, Charlotte Carrico; a son, Joe Carrico; his brother Emmett Carrico; and sisters, Beatrice Milburn and Theresa Keefe. He leaves behind to cherish his memory four daughters, Patricia Evans (Randy), Sharon Justice (Eddie), Beverly Overstreet, and Theresa Layman (Mike); a son, Glen Tuten; along with a sister, Emma "Boots" Martin. He also leaves behind eight grandchildren; fifteen great grandchildren; four great great grandchildren; and his beloved cats. Funeral services will be 11 a.m. Tuesday at Owen Funeral Home, 5317 Dixie Highway with burial in Louisville Memorial Gardens West. Visitation will be 2 – 8 p.m. Monday. Expressions of sympathy may be made by donations to the Ky. Humane Society or the National Right to Life charities.

Tribute Wall

SV

“ The wisest, kind and great man. I miss you. Your laughter and sense of humor always made me smile. You will always hold a special place in my heart. I love you

Shirley VanDerryt - June 28, 2018 at 03:56 PM

AM

“ I'm at a loss for words. Uncle Jay was my favorite uncle, and I had many. He was my role model for a person with intelligence, humor and humanity. My first memories, around two to three years old or so, are of living with my parents and Uncle Jay and Aunt Snookie. I can still see that old kitchen (from somewhere at floor level because I crawled a lot). I haven't seen Uncle Jay for several years, but he's always been in my heart and always will be. I'm glad he's with Aunt Snookie, Joey and my Grandma , his Mother, Mary Agnes. He gave me my name. Beo Beo Bohunk.

Allen Martin - June 28, 2018 at 03:56 PM