

Joyce P. Wilmoth

July 10, 1927 - January 29, 2021

Joyce P. Wilmoth, widow of Charles B. Wilmoth, died Friday, January 29, 2021 at the age of 93. She is survived by her daughter, Linda Peel (Ernie); her granddaughter, Brittany Peel Harrison (Chris); and her nephew, Jeff Blanton (Kathy). She was preceded in death by her parents, Neal and Esther Parcher, and her sisters, JoAnne Bondurant and Jeanne Parcher.

Joyce and Charlie met at Fourth Avenue United Methodist Church and were married there on October 1, 1949. Their first date was a University of Louisville homecoming dance and she and Charlie enjoyed attending UL Football and Basketball games for over 50 years.

Joyce was a retired secretary from Pleasure Ridge Park High School and said she had the best job in the state!

Joyce loved entertaining her family and friends, attending church, reading, and spending time outside in her beautiful garden. Joyce was always joyful, no matter her circumstances and very generous to others.

Joyce was a member of Fourth Avenue United Methodist Church in Louisville and First United Methodist Church in Lexington.

Services will be 1:00pm Saturday February 6, 2021 at Owen Funeral Home, 5317 Dixie Highway.

“ I will always remember Joyce for her beautiful smile and always-welcoming personality. She had a classic style and grace that few possess. We shared a love for reading and writing and were both huge fans of Rick Bragg. Joyce would always take the time to send me copies of his essays from “Southern Living” magazine. She and Charlie had a steadfast faith. Both lived their lives as examples of Jesus. How blessed I was to have known Joyce and her beloved Charlie.
